A HEBREW GOVERNMENT. - A form of govment was established in 1864 by the Israelites resident in the United States, for the purpose of guarding the race in America. This organization has been in regular operation ever since its establishment, but so exclusively have its doings been confined to the affairs and circles of those immediately interested, that the publie at large has known very little of its existence. The business of this government has now grown so important that the Executive is about to call for loans, and issue bends, in the name of the Israelitish government, bearing seven per cent. interest. This organization is intended to co-operate with similar associations in other parts of the world, the grand object being a furtherance of the favorite and traditional Jewish idea, that the whole race of Israelites will be ultimately gathered together in the land of their foretathers. Then, they believe, the temple of Jerusalem will be rebuilt, preparatory to the coming of the Messiah, to vindicate the truth of the religious belief to which the Jews have adhered tenaciously for so many centuries. The whole number of Jews scattered abroad throughout the world is estimated at six millions.

GOOD ADVICE TO MECHANICS. - A northern exchange advises every mechanic to buy a house lot-if possible an acre. It says it the bug, as thousands of testimonials can assert .spot is not inviting it may be made so by trees, shrubbery and cultivation. The paper from cate, or written guarantee, that the picture is serted that there is nothing that will force or which we quote says:

"Secure the land and your credit will at once be raised fifty per cent. A mechanic living on ient throws away all the improvements he may make. He accumulates little or no capital around him. On the other hand, when he has a home he can call his own, everything he does tions sacredly confidential. Address, in confi- already thrown away large amounts in their counts something. All his labors cluster around one common centre. He has a home of his own and it is his pride and pleasure to adorn it to the best of his ability.

It also says that the boundaries and the wealth of every village could be increased if a farm adjacent thereto could be bought and cut up into house lots and sold at reasonable rates to all who may desire to occupy them .- Richmond Whig.

Roses.-Mr. Blunt, the British vice-consul at Adrianople, in his report to the Foreign office this year, gives an account of the rose fields of Adrianople, extending over twelve thousand or fourteen thousand acres, and supplying the most important source of wealth in the district. The season for picking the roses is from the latter part of April to the early part of June; and at sunrise the plains look like a vast garden full of life and fragrance, with hundreds of Bulgarian boys and girls gathering the flowers into baskets and sacks, the air impregnated with the delicous scent, and the scene enlivened by songs, dancing and music. It is estimated that the rose districts of Adrianople produced in the season of 1866 about 700,000 miscals of otter of roses, (the miscal being 1 1-2 drachm,) the price averaging rather more than three shillings sterling per miscal.

THE OLD DOMINION .- One thing is certain, says the National Intelligencer: No amount of misgovernment can despoil the "Old Dominion" of its magnificent natural advantages. With a varied soil, embracing exhaustless strength in its limestone valleys; the rarest pasture lands on its mountain slopes; the quick kindliness of the tide water region, with a water-power not surpassed by any State in the Union, and magnificent water-courses that afford the cheapest conveyance to the birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, ocean, while abounding in luxuries for the table; with boundless resources of coal and iron and marble and other valuable minerals, it is bound to become a busy hive of industry crowded with an energetic, enterprising population that will claim the old place in the councils of the nation so proudly filled by the men of the past.

GOOD ADVICE.—The constant fluctuations of the political world, says the Richmond Examiner, should teach the young men of the United States, instead of relying for support upon public honors and emoluments, which are as fleeting as parties are changeable or inconstant, to stick to that private industry which is the most sure and permanent source of prosperity. Amongst all parties there are demagogues who gladly avail themselves of the services of the young and inexperienced with a view to their own preferment. The rewards of the spoils generally fall to those wire pullers who employ the intelligence and worth of young and ingeneous spirits to secure precedence to their own personal incapacity and personal most successful, causes speedy marriages and from any part of the body. completely and radically extirpating the same, leaving the skin tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. QUEER ELOPEMENT. - An Ohio paper tells a novel love story. A young couple planned an elopement, the girl descending from her room upon the traditional ladder, but at the gate they were met by the father of the girl and a respectfully informs the citizens of Alexandria minister, by whom the young couple were escorted to the parlor, where to their surprise they found all their relatives collected for the

A Young LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful .-Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order by W.
